After grading each exam at the October 30, closed meeting, it was confirmed that 2 applicants passed the exam with 52 errors or less. No further comments.

ITEM #7: Victoria Boyd, CCR #828 Seeking to Waive Her Suspension: Victoria Boyd, CCR #828 appeared before the Board, seeking to waive her suspension and request a refund for the difference of fees for $125.00. Ms. Boyd admitted to submitting the wrong form and payment; she submitted an active status renewal form, along with a payment of $250.00. Her submission was received by the Board on June 30, 2025. Her intent was to apply for inactive status and the fee is $125.00. Subsequently her certificate was placed on suspension for her failure to submit continuing education credits by June 30th as required for active certificate holders. Prior to the open meeting, the Executive Secretary suggested to Ms. Boyd to reinstate her certificate using the extra $125 to cover the reinstatement fee and using the remaining $125 to apply for inactive. Ms. Boyd did not take action on this suggestion. It is the duty of the court reporter to submit the correct form and payment by deadline. Heidi Konsten stated the Board did not have the authority to waive a suspension. Ms. Konsten experienced a similar situation when her renewal form and payment was lost and she was issued a suspension and was required to reinstate her certificate. No further comments.

ITEM #12: Proposal to Waive the Grace Period for a Court Reporter's Renewal: William LaBorde suggested the Board remove the 45-day grace period to renew a court reporter's certificate. Since there is no penalty for late submissions, most reporters submit their renewal form and payment long after the May 15th deadline and utilized the grace period deadline of June 30th. The renewal process would be more efficient by removing the grace period and utilizing the statutory deadline of May 15th. No further comments.

Applicants must register and pay $50 for the program. The payment must be made telephonically to the Board's office to expedite the process. Upon receipt of payment, the applicant will receive 2 questions derived from the meeting and will have 5 days after the meeting to answer the 2 questions correctly to earn the credit. If they fail to answer correctly, the applicant will not receive a refund or the credit. No further comments.
